Location

The Newcastle Arms is located on the edge of Old Basford and Aspley, occupying a prominent corner position fronting Nuthall Road (A610), which runs from the M1 interchange into the city centre, and Basford Road. This is a busy roadside location and the 2022 daily traffic flow demonstrates over 35,000 vehicles passing the site. Nearby properties include residential dwellings, retail premises and take aways.

Property Description

The Newcastle Arms is a two storey detached property of mainly brick construction under a slate roof, with later single storey additions.

Accommodation

The ground floor comprises of a two trade room bar and lounge operation both of which have their own central serveries. The main bar has an area which was previously used as a games room for pool and darts. Internally the pub has the potential for around 100 covers.

Ancillary areas include two sets of customer WC's, disabled WC, catering kitchen, basement beer store and various storage areas.

The private accommodation is situated on the first floor and comprises 4 bedrooms, lounge, domestic kitchen, separate WC and bathroom.

Externally there is a trade patio to the front which accommodated 5 picnic benches when the pub was trading. There was previously an additional trade patio to the rear of the pub for 6 picnic benches and a smoking solution. The pub has a car park for circa 20 cars.

The property's Gross Internal Area is around 4,096 sq ft and it sits on a plot size amounting to circa 0.338 of an acre.

The site is likely to be of interest to local & regional public house and restaurant operators, retailers, property investors and developers.
