Location

Peterston-super-Ely is an attractive and affluent village in the Vale of Glamorgan, situated on the River Ely, with a population in the region of 900 residents. This is a highly sought-after rural residential location, benefiting from its proximity to Cardiff city centre, which lies approximately 7 miles to the east. The village is accessed via Gwern-Y-Steeple and the A48 to the south, with St. Brides Road providing northern connectivity.

The Sportsmans Rest occupies a position on the south-western edge of the village, approximately 30 metres north of the River Ely. The surrounding area is predominantly residential, with the property set amongst private dwellings. A railway line runs immediately beyond the northern boundary of the site. Local amenities within the village include a primary school, community hall, church, village shop, and various walking routes along the River Ely and surrounding countryside.

Property Description

The property comprises a two-storey detached public house with painted elevations beneath a slate roof, with later single-storey extensions to the side and rear. A single-storey outbuilding is situated along the eastern boundary and adjoins the neighbouring residential property.

Accommodation

The ground floor comprises an open plan, interconnecting bar and restaurant arranged around a central servery, offering seating for around 70 covers.

Ancillary areas include customer WC's, ground floor beer store, commercial kitchen and various storage areas.

The private accommodation is located on the first floor and comprises two double bedrooms, a single bedroom, lounge, kitchen and bathroom.

Externally, the property benefits from two trade terraces and a large grassed beer garden. The pub has car parking for c. 30 vehicles.

The property's Gross External Area is around 2,600 sqft and it sits on a plot size amounting to c. 0.75 of an acre.
